

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

ONLY A LITTLE WHILE AGO—

A BIG JOB FOR THE DOCTOR

AT THE START

AND NOW!

IN SOUTH AMERICAN JUNGLES

NOW FOR SOME REAL WORK

AT THE WINTER CAPITAL

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS
EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

OLD LYME

A. F. and A. M. Installation—Kindergarten Resigns—Santa-Bogue Marriage.

The following officers were installed at the last meeting of Pythagoras lodge, A. F. and A. M., by Past Masters George Griswold and Griswold Perkins: Worshipful master, T. W. Shearer; treasurer, Joseph T. Bugbee; secretary, George Griswold; senior warden, Robert H. Noble; junior warden, Allen Spiers; senior deacon, William Moore; junior deacon, John E. Noyes; senior steward, Griswold Perkins; junior steward, Joseph P. Maynard; Tyler, John Hoskins; trustee for three years, Nathaniel Sheffield, Jr.

Miss Rockwell, teacher in the kindergarten class, has resigned owing to trouble with her eyes. Miss Ruth Corey, who has taught the same class last term, has been secured to take her place.

Northrup Chapman has returned to his studies at Yale after spending the holiday season with his parents.

R. A. Peet has left for a few days' trip to Cleveland, O.

R. H. Noble, who has elected town clerk at the last town election, has entered upon his new duties.

W. E. Caulkins had charge of moving the safe and books from the residence of C. F. Horton on Ferry street to the home of R. H. Noble on Academy avenue.

A number of members from the local lodge of Odd Fellows went to Niantic Wednesday night, accompanying the district deputy, R. H. Noble, who installed the officers of that lodge.

Harold Pierson has returned home after a week's visit to friends in New York.

Santa-Bogue.

Harry Banta and Agnes Bogue were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Ringrose in the Baptist parsonage.

Miss Helen Clark was a visitor in Essex Tuesday.

SHUNOC

New Sawyer at Wheeler's Mill—Merrill Family Leaves for Florida.

Church services were very poorly attended Sunday owing to the rainstorm.

New Sawyer at Mill.

Truman H. Bennett, sawyer at Wheeler's steam sawmill, has resigned and is succeeded by Mr. Gray of Ledyard. The mill is now located at the Colonel Palmer place, at Pendleton Hill. Many workmen are employed at the mill and the lumber is being shipped to Boston and other eastern markets.

C. E. Hillard and G. E. Brown of North Stonington are serving as jurors at the January criminal term of the court in Norwich.

Numbers from here attended the funeral of Irving Franklin Babcock, held from his home near Westerly Saturday afternoon.

School opened Monday. Miss Gertrude Maine of Preston, who taught the fall term with marked success, is again the teacher.

Dr. Thurman P. Maine has erected a garage.

R. B. Wheeler was in Jewett City Monday.

E. P. Merrill and family left Wednesday for Jacksonville, Fla. Mr. Merrill and family reside in Chicago and have been staying for several days with Mr. Merrill's mother, Frank Merrill, in Shunoc.

Irving R. Maine is building a new icehouse.

LEFFINGWELL

Mrs. Jerome Taylor returned to Ridgfield, Monday, after spending two weeks at her home on Wauwaucon Hill.

Miss Edith Lettingwell returned to Philadelphia on Jan. 2, after spending the holidays with her parents.

Harry Palmer was in Fitchville on Thursday, leading a car with poles for C. M. Gelinehart.

NIANTIC

Odd Fellows' Installation—Local Pastor Attends Taftville Meeting.

District Deputy Robert Noble of Old Lyme was in town Wednesday evening to install the officers in Niantic lodge of Odd Fellows. After the meeting the members and guests adjourned to the lower hall, where a nice supper was awaiting them. There was a good attendance of Odd Fellows.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Way returned to Meriden Sunday evening after a visit to local relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Albin Hagstrom left Sunday for their home in Norwich.

Miss Grace Saunders who is teaching in Deep River spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Saunders.

Mrs. Adam F. Bishop was in New London Tuesday afternoon attending the meeting of the Sunshine society of which she is a member.

Fred J. Howard resumed his studies at the Manual Training school in New London Tuesday.

At Taftville Meeting.

Rev. J. William Knappenberger, pastor of the Congregational church, was in Taftville Tuesday attending the meeting of Congregational ministers.

Joseph C. Burnham was a business caller in New Haven Tuesday.

A. P. Crumb of Groton was in the village Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Marvin have returned from a visit to relatives in New Haven.

R. F. D. Carrier J. Percy Morgan, who has been ill for some time, is able to resume his duties on the mail route.

Fritz Dart of Trinity college, Hartford, was a recent guest of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Dart.

MOHEGAN

The funeral of Mrs. Anne M. Mathews, held Tuesday, was attended by many sorrowing friends.

Mrs. Davis and son, Raymond, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, have returned to Mystic.

No services were held in the church Sunday on account of the storm.

LEBANON

Players At the Whist Tables—Secretary C. D. Hine Makes Fine Gift To School.

Eighteen tables of whist were played in Grange Hall, Friday evening. The following are the prize winners—Ladies, first, Florence Rockwood, second, Florence Hoffman; gentlemen—first, Carl Hallen, second, Karl Bishop; consolation—Aunie Park and Royce Loomis.

Gene To Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. William Blanchard and Miss Edna Burgess have gone to Winter Haven, Fla., for the winter.

Mrs. Frank C. Perkins and son Frank, have returned to Springfield, Mass., after spending a few days with Mrs. Perkins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kingsley.

Mrs. Otto Pultz was in Norwich Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Troland and Miss Emma Troland of New London, spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Troland.

Miss Fannie Perkins is visiting her brother, Frank C. Perkins, in Springfield, Mass.

Miss Coskey of Norwich has been visiting Miss Elizabeth Duffy.

Miss Flora Spaulding passed a few days in Norwich this week.

Miss Doris Troland has returned, after visiting in New London and Naugatuck.

Miss Hollis Campbell has been visiting friends in Springfield.

Teachers' Meeting.

L. T. Garrison of Willimantic, supervisor of the schools held a teachers' meeting at the center school, Tuesday afternoon. Seven teachers were present.

Secretary Hine Remembers School He Attended.

Secretary C. D. Hine of Hartford presented District No. 6, with twenty volumes of "The Book of Knowledge."

Mr. Hine formerly lived here and attended the District No. 6 school.

The Ladies Aid Society met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. N. B. Royall.

FRANKLIN

Guests Entertained Recently—Funeral of Mrs. Edward Howard.

Miss Charlotte Wagoner of Morris, Conn., was a visitor.

town, N. J., was a recent guest of her brother, Rev. B. P. Capshaw.

Mrs. Sarah Greenhall entertained one day last week Miss Emmeline Smith of New London and Miss Maud Davies of Montclair, N. J.

Mrs. Hermon Gager entertained on Monday Mrs. Henry Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Hyde of Willimantic and Miss Bernice Adams of New Haven.

Mrs. Abbie Speeler and Miss Lillie Johnson were at Sunny Top Wednesday.

C. H. Robinson and Ray Manning were in Norwich, Monday evening attending the turkey supper given by the L. O. O. F.

Mrs. Hermon Gager spent Saturday in Lisbon.

Mrs. William Smith have returned after spending several weeks in Cleveland, Ohio.

Funeral of Mrs. Howard.

The funeral of Mrs. Edward Howard was held at her home Saturday afternoon, a large number of relatives and friends being present. There were many floral tributes. A quartette composed of Mrs. J. A. Robinson, Mrs. Louis Smith, Fred Armstrong and Louis Smith sang, "Face to Face," and "Home of the Soul."

NORTH FRANKLIN

Charles Sherman Moves to Palmettown Farm—Surprise Party For Mrs. Greene.

Charles Sherman has purchased the Stephen Parker place at Palmettown and moved his goods there the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Race entertained Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. William Loomis and Mrs. Ella Watson of Greenville.

Herbert Hoffman has returned to his home at Northampton, Mass., after spending the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Jennette Hoffman.

Surprised By Neighbors.

The neighbors surprised Mr. John Greene at his home Saturday evening. Several tables of whist was played. Sandwiches, coffee, and cake was served. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Greene and Miss Esther Green of South Coventry.

Charles Sherman has bought a pair of heavy horses from Reuben Manning.

Returns To New York.

Fred H. Race, Jr., has returned to his studies at the New York law school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lamphere of Fitchville spent Wednesday with Mrs. C. H. Peckham.

Mrs. Inogene Arnold of Willimantic spent Tuesday with her daughter, Mrs. Reuben Manning.

Eugene Clark was a recent Hartford visitor.

Mrs. Henrietta Huntington, Mrs. Hannah Kingsley and Grace K. Peckham spent Friday with Mrs. James R. Allen of Thompsonville.

GRISWOLD

Birthday Surprise Party For Mrs. Albert Cray—Many Gifts Received.

Mrs. Albert Cray of Griswold was pleasantly reminded that Jan. 2 was her birthday, last Friday evening when over fifty relatives and friends came at seven o'clock to her home. Mrs. Cray was away to see teams and lights flying about which signified something unusual, she soon became aware of the meaning and after greetings and congratulations were exchanged, the evening was devoted to games and contests. Instrumental and vocal solos by Misses Bennett, Geer and Tibbitts were enjoyed. A poem composed and read by the Rev. Francis Child recalled the winter morn in 1871, and spoke of Mrs. Cray's very agreeable and hospitable ways and her friends and their appreciation of her as a neighbor and friend. After the reading of this poem, sandwiches, cake, home-made candy and coffee were served. Mrs. Cray was presented an elaborate birthday cake of enormous size on which flamed forty-three candles. This cake was cut and each person present had a sample. Miss Cynthia Cray of Preston City a niece of Mrs. Cray presented her many remembrances of the day, including linen, glass, china, money, neckwear and a parlor lamp. Mrs. Cray expressed her appreciation of the gifts.

Edward A. Geer spoke of his pleasant recollection of Mrs. Cray when he was teaching school and he spoke of the appreciation of her in the community. A social hour was enjoyed by all.

Miss Ida Edmond of Oakdale spent Christmas with her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Edmond and T. F. Edmond.

Miss Mary Hoppman is visiting friends in Boston.

Miss Hattie Bennett of Preston spent Sunday with Miss Anna Cray.

LAUREL GLEN

Good Attendance At Auction—Horace Palmer Injured.

The auction held Friday of Mr. Kavanagh was well attended.

Mrs. George Tillinghast of Westport is visiting at W. L. Maine's.

George Hill spent Monday night and Tuesday with his family here.

School opened Monday after two weeks' vacation with the same teachers. Miss Olga Thompson of North Stonington.

William Congdon was a visitor at his cousin's John Geer's, Tuesday.

Mr. Gray of Ledyard is boarding at Mrs. Phoebe White's.

Mrs. Dwight Miner of Norwood, R. I., and granddaughter, Mrs. Edward L. Miner, were visitors.

Gould of Westerly were visitors at John Geer's, Thursday.

Horace Palmer while sawing wood Wednesday cut his hand badly.

NORTH STONINGTON

Many Attend Fellowship Meeting—New England Supper Given by Baptist Ladies' Society.

Rev. Lucian Drury and Rev. George H. Chambers attended the January meeting of the New London and vicinity Baptist ministers at Norwich on Monday. The next meeting of the conference will be held with the local Baptist church Feb. 2.

Fellowship Meeting.

The fellowship meeting held with the Congregational church in this city on Thursday brought out a good attendance from sister churches. The sermon was by Rev. A. F. Barnshaw of Mystic. The afternoon session was devoted to an open discussion of the question, How may Sunday school instruction be improved? A fine dinner was served by the ladies of the entertaining church.

Rev. F. M. Hollister officiated at the funeral of Mrs. James F. Brown in Mystic Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. John D. Avery, Mrs. and Mrs. C. P. Kendall, Mrs. H. M. Pendleton, Miss Della Wheeler and Miss Louise Hewitt attended the service.

The Ladies' society of the Third Baptist church held a New England supper at the residence of B. R. Park Thursday evening.

Grange Installation.

Installation of officers for the coming year took place at the Grange meeting Friday evening. J. Edwin Thompson is worthy master. Clarence Davis, overseer. Rev. Lucian Drury, chaplain, elected for the seventh successive year. John D. Avery, lecturer.

Mrs. Appleton Maine of Preston Plain visited in town Thursday and attended the fellowship meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Telefor Stahl of Providence have been visiting Mrs. Fannie Stone and family.

HAMBURG

Fred Barrows of Hartford, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. W. M. Anderson.

Lee Harding of Fitchburg, Mass., visited his mother last week.

A teachers' meeting was held at the Sterling City schoolhouse last Wednesday.

Miss Emma Sawyer of Springfield, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sawyer.

Mrs. John Tenny and daughter are visiting friends in Hartford.

Miss Carrie Bell was in Hartford Tuesday on business.

Reginald Lord returned Monday to his home in Hartford.